Twisted Doctor was born on September 22nd, 2001 and I was born on April 2nd, 2006

I used to go by "Qroissant", Twisted-Doctor groomed me from age 12 to 14. I met him through him asking me to send him "ahegaos" of Mystery. Keep in mind my birthday is on April 2nd, therefore I had just turned 12 years old in this screenshot. TD was 16.

As Most of the fandom probably recalls, He would make vore/inflation “jokes” a lot. Here are some screenshots from Birdie’s server from 2018, in which me and Sleepykinq were mods in.

And we never fall down because of its costant erection

We started becoming pretty talkative during this era, especially since I was so hyper fixated on his content at the time. I was a huge fan of Doll Eye and Mystery Burns.

I would like to note that this is Twisted-Doctor's OLD ACCOUNT, which he deleted out of fear after this [first callout]. However, I have evidence that this is in fact him.
I also moved accounts. I am the owner of "Moved3350".

Twisted Doctor's old account is "deleted_user_894b0b01f83"

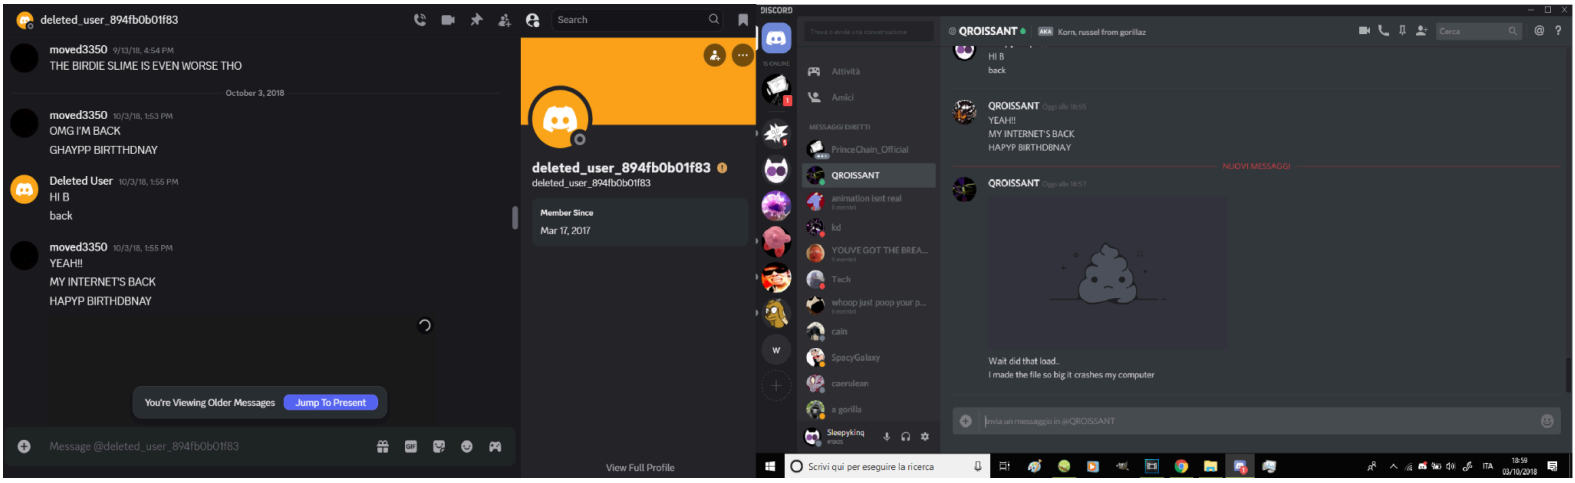
+Proof of it being his account



As you can see, this is Twisted-Doctor's old setup. The username "QROISSANT" is mine, and it lines up with the date for the timeline.

[HIGH QUALITY SS + MORE PROOF THAT THIS IS HIS ACCOUNT]

Here’s proof of him purging stuff, and admitting to freaking out because someone was going to call him out for the things he would say and do around people younger than him.

By ‘r’ and ‘inc’ hes referring to Rape and Incest, so you can have an idea of what was discussed in this server.

TRIPLE THREATS SERVER

This server was originally mentioned in the FIRST CALLOUT, in this server there was a channel called “Meat-Room” this was technically the NSFW channel, which you would gain access to once you became 13. Pk Thunder (A 14 year old at the time of these screenshots) was kind enough to lend me these. This is repeated behaviour, as Pk Thunder/Lonely also had a suggestive roleplay when they were 12 withTD and SpacyGalaxy in 2017.High res

If you were at all in the Twisted-Doctor/Sleepykinq fandom from 2016-2022 then it is no secret that it was inappropriate for many young impressionable kids. He had a server called “Mystery’s Stomach” in which he had 4 NSFW channels. Here is a mention of it since I was a mod in the server.

Twisted-Doctor: "Qroi isn't in the server"

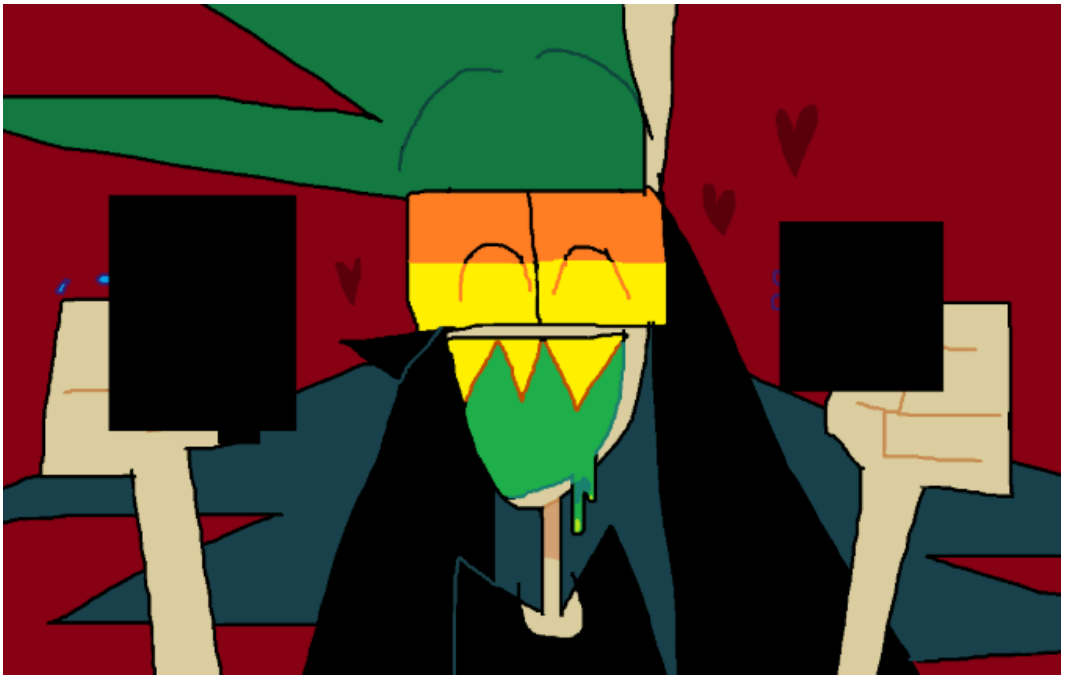
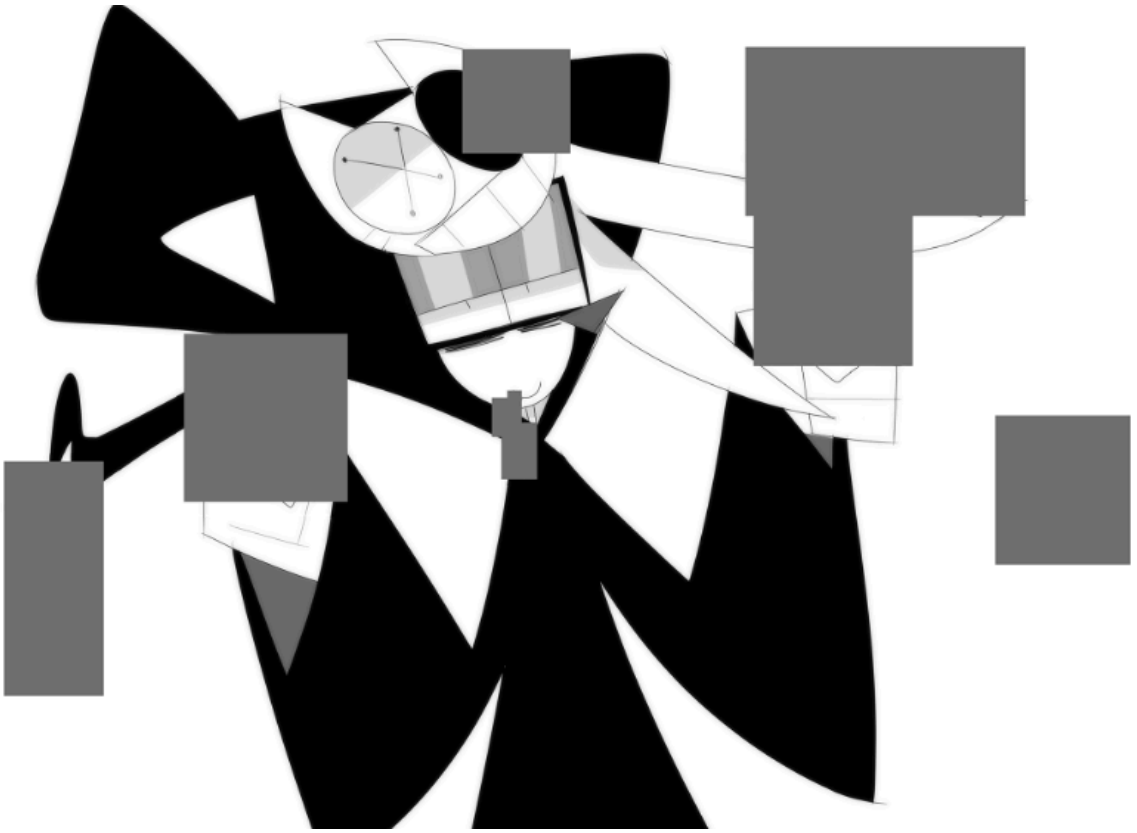
[Here is more proof of me being a moderator + more screenshots from Sam]

EXPLICIT NSFW/SUGGESTIVE CONTENT HE'D PRIVATELY SEND TO THE 'TRIPLE THREATS' SERVER/GC

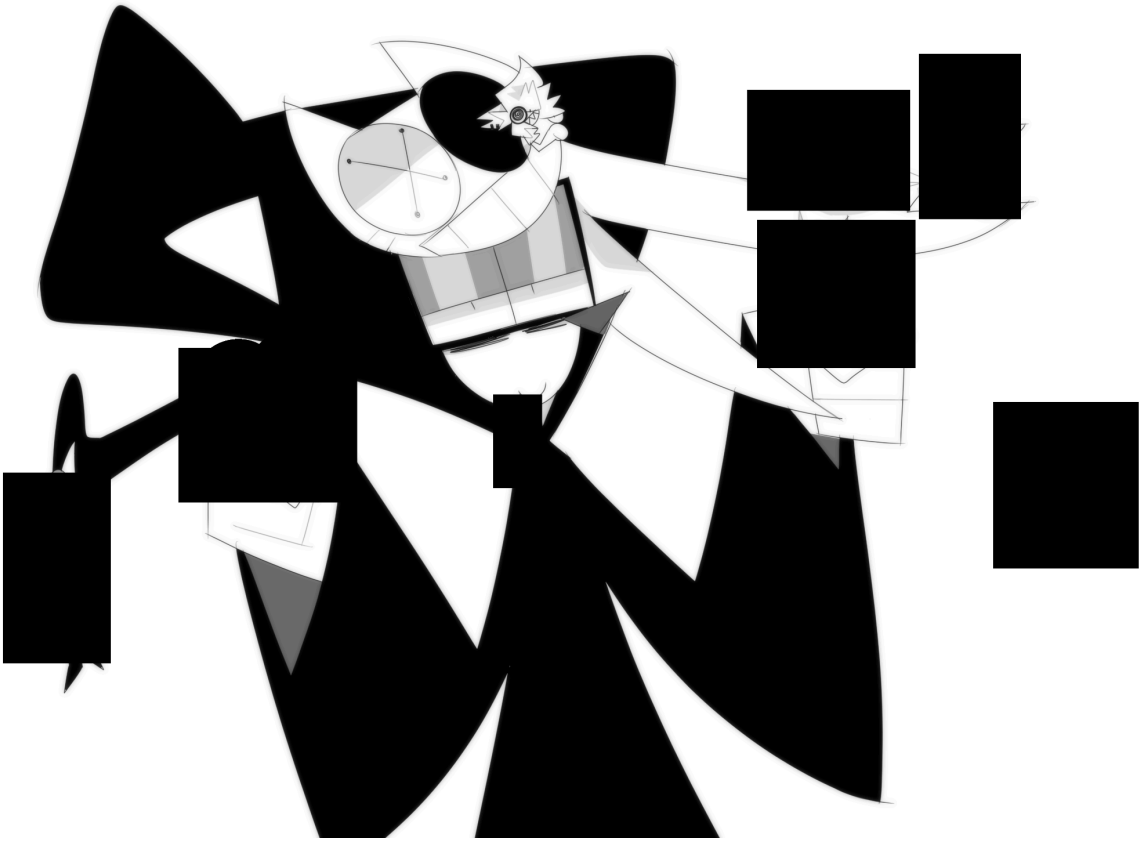
His obsession with Vore would go so far as to draw people younger than him about to get eaten by him. Members censored for privacy.



This one included the whole friend group.



However, to at least confirm that these were mainly younger people, I decided to at least uncover my old sona in the last one.



Here is Twisted-Doctor's/Bone's ref sheet and mine, for confirmation that these were sonas and not just OCs

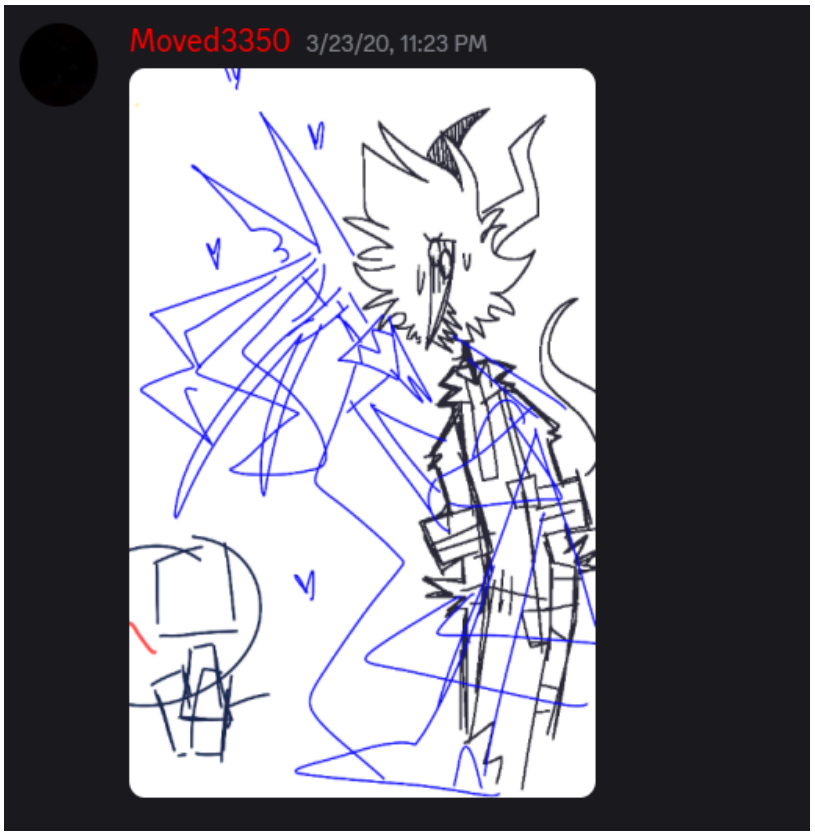
[BETTER QUALITY SCREENSHOTS + ORIGINAL]

This behaviour got dragged for as long as 2020, in which we started separating from the friend group, I would draw in aggies and he would just draw over it to make sexual and vore-related innuendos. The little Mystery doodles were drawn by me and I was 13 at the time, while he was already an adult.

moved3350 2/15/20, 6:48 PM

One of the characters shown here is ‘Damien’, my really old OC from 2019/2020. Here is some proof that this character belongs to me:



Twisted-Doctor also drew a threesome drawing with me and Pk Thunder's oc. He was 19 years old while me and Pk Thunder were 14/15 years old at the time.

VORE COMMISSION

Back in 2019, Twisted-Doctor commissioned someone who had just turned 15 years old for vore. Twisted-Doctor was close to becoming an adult at this time, while it might not be as intense of an age-gap as the past screenshots, it still shows how insistent he was on asking people for fetish content. Twisted-Doctor denies having a vore fetish in the section of [his response] titled 'fetishes'.
He absolutely has a vore fetish.

These were drawn by him in mid 2023 and late 2024.

Twisted-Doctor's former partner, fossfeen, acted as a PR manager for him and his studio, Dreamsteed. They helped him write his response to the callout, and defended bones for years. After many of TD's former friends and associates called them out on their behavior, they decided to dissolve Dreamsteed and stop work on Doll Eye, posting an announcement to the Doll Eye server. It should be noted that they only dropped the project after they realized it might endanger their career. (Hi-res version linked here)

fossfeen 8:42 PM
@everyone i have made the very difficult decision to leave DREAMSTEED and to cancel all of my involvement in DOLL EYE and other DREAMSTEED projects. i know this will come as a huge shock to a lot of you, but i can no longer associate myself with the project. i know many of you will have questions, and i hope to answer as many of them as i can in time, but for right now my main priority is to distance myself from this project and to move on and live a private, personal life. as i am stepping down, i am unsure of what the future of the project holds, and i no longer wish for it to be something for me to be in charge of. bones is now solely in charge of the project, since it was his project to begin with. since the patreon happened under my leadership and was my idea, i will make it my personal duty to ensure all patreon supports receive refunds for their entire contributions. i know many of you were involved in or have at least heard of the controversies this project and its creator have been through, and if you have any doubts at all about this project or its past, i would encourage you to distance yourself from it. it will be so much better for you, i think. i want to thank all of you for the good times. i am so sorry, everyone. goodbye.
since i am leaving, i will leave it up to the current mods as to whether they would like to continue this server as an unofficial server (with no involvement from bones) or if they'd like to delete the server altogether. i genuinely wish the best for everyone and i am so, so sorry for the shock and for the disappointment
You do not have permission to send messages in this channel.

Soon afterwards, TD (CEO of doll eye Dr. Twisted Doct) said that despite all of this they would continue working on the game: (Hi-res version linked here) and i hope to answer as many of them as i can in time, but for right now my main priority is to distance myself from this project and to move on and live a private, personal life. as i am stepping down, i am unsure of what the future of the project holds, and i no longer wish for it to be something for me to be in charge of. bones is now solely in charge of the project, since it was his project to begin with. since the patreon happened under my leadership and was my idea, i will make it my personal duty to ensure all patreon supports receive refunds for their entire contributions. i know many of you were involved in or have at least heard of the controversies this project and its creator have been through, and if you have any doubts at all about this project or its past, i would encourage you to distance yourself from it. it will be so much better for you, i think. i want to thank all of you for the good times. i am so sorry, everyone. goodbye.

since i am leaving, i will leave it up to the current mods as to whether they would like to continue this server as an unofficial server (with no involvement from bones) or if they'd like to delete the server altogether. i genuinely wish the best for everyone and i am so, so sorry for the shock and for the disappointment

Whatever happens soon, all I'm going to say for the time being is that I'm never going to discontinue any of my projects or artistic presence. Doll Eye will continue happening and so will future projects
